

Why do you limit channels that people can watch, is it so important for you to control us. It is a shame that I can get 150 channels, but not my local news and that I must ask permission from my local news station to see their news. I rank your service as F and put you right up there with the communist. Tell me why local channels aren't offered to everyone? Are we running out of air waves or is this about control?